He also suggested a more thorough selection process for filling this role. RJ stated that the position will be posted in various places and on various job search websites. RJ stated that if numbers do not go up by June 30th the position will end.

8. Discussion Items

A. JMCS Recurring Monthly Warrants- Monthly and Annual Totals (Attachment 8, Page 45)

RJ Guess reviewed the warrants and explained that they were listed by object code. The vendor, amount paid, frequency, and description have been included in the totals. Monthly costs have been clearly stated. This can range from utilities, rent, to insurance costs. RJ reminded the board that JMCS gets some of the money paid in rent back per ADA. With professional services, RJ explains that depending on the service this can be a monthly or annual cost. Unemployment tax has also been listed with its frequency. He also explained that JMCS has multiple AT&T subscriptions due to one subscription being needed at each site. Stan Miller pointed out that a retainer fee for legal services is missing. RJ acknowledged and will continue to update the sheet for more accuracy.

B. Breakout of JMCS Administrative Costs (Attachment 9, Page 51)

C. JMCS Foundation Report

Gil Botello announces that there is no report.

D. CEO's Report

RJ Guess went into detail about holding board meetings through Zoom or in person. He explained that the board needs to be in the same room to meet the quorum. If a member would like to meet by Zoom, the location needs to have had the agenda posted and made handicap accessible. Board members can attend board meetings from a JMCS site that has posted the agenda, the site must be handicap accessible and open to the public. He reminded the board that they can advise to always have a Zoom meeting available. This will make the meetings as accessible as possible.

E. TAC Report

Rich Johnson announced that TAC has been working on recruitment. TAC has also been discussing low student population numbers and TAC members are developing ways to improve enrollment. Rich believes JMCS is moving in the right direction by hiring a recruitment specialist to help increase enrollment.
